

My understanding is that the applicant shall not be required to file a fee for petition of extension of time because the failure to file the notice of appeal in time was not a mistake from our side. If your understanding is different, please give a notice and we will pay the missing fee.

Yours truly;

(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

The Examiner issued final office action on June 17th 2003 where all the claims were rejected. The applicant submitted an amendment on August 26th 2003. In an advisory action on September 25th, 2003 the examiner stated that the proposed amendments will not be entered because they are not deemed to place the application in better form for appeal. The applicant filed a new amendment with a request to extend the time for reply on October 27th 2003. The examiner issued an advisory action on January 6th 2004 stating that the proposed amendment will be entered for purpose of appeal. The period to reply was 4 months from the mailing date of the final office action. The applicant could not file the notice of appeal in given time as 4 months from final action expired on October 17th 2003 and the statutory period on December 17th, 2003 i.e. before the examiner issued the last advisory action.

(Please attach additional sheets if additional space is needed.)
